

Oliver Zeter Pinot Noir Reserve 2015

Light to mid garnet. Quite evolved, cabbagey Pinot nose. Certainly not overdone nor over-oaked. A pretty wine. Round, sweet and slightly salty. Easy to like and easy to drink without food even if there is a light dusting of very fine tannins. A hint of orange peel, long with a very slight, and not unattractive, vegetal hint. Admirably long. Well done. I may be underscoring this.

Drink 2017–2020 16.5 points

delibo
WINE AGENCIES

www.jancisrobinson.com

Wine produced in the Pfalz region of Germany